DESCRIPTION:

Flamboyant Children Theatre offers a bilingual Drama Camp for children (5-12 years old) during the October holidays 2024. Throughout the week we will have fun learning how to tell a story on stage through acting, singing, dancing and collaborating!

The participating children will be able to play on a real stage, in the wonderful theatre of École Riviera in Montreux. There, we will explore together the techniques of acting, singing and dancing and we will use our imagination to prepare a show inspired by the best stories of children literature! If that wasn't enough to convince you, on Friday afternoon we will open the curtains to all families to attend our end-of-the-week show, a real Flamboyant experience, rich in emotions and happiness, that we are delighted to share with you!
